Confucius Great Sage.

The man whose memory has for 2,000 years aroused respect and honor in China was a sage, not a saint nor a founder of a religious faith. Confucius took the best of the various Chinese philosophies of his day and formed a cult of his own, using as a basis five cardinal virtues—righteousness, knowledge, sincerity, politeness and discrimination of good. The wisdom of the Chinese Solomon so delighted the people that temples were built in his honor, his wise sayings were widely quoted and came to be taught in the Chinese schools.

Physic If He's Sick.

One day the new physics instructor came into our assembly room and said: "All those who expect to take any physics this year may come with me." Then he wondered why we laughed.—Boys' Life.

DECISION ON A LOCATION SUIT

John Rojakovich was partially sustained in his suit against the Home Stake Divide Mining company with relation to the location of Freezout No. 2 claim which is held valid by Judge Mark R. Averill in the district court. The Freezout and Freezout No. 1 are still held not to be valid mining claims. Each side will pay its own court costs incurred after March 18, 1920. Judgment has entered in favor of the plaintiff for the Freezout No. 2, and against him as to the Freezout and Freezout No. 1; but the Freezout No. 2 should be confined to the limits above described.

cried, and should take no part of the Pay Rock No. 4 or the Pay Rock No. 5.

Defendant company owns the Pay Rock, Pay Rock No. 1, Pay Day and Pay Day No. 1 and claims if they are valid. The plaintiff is the locator of the Freezout, Freezout No. 1 and Freezout No. 2, which cover almost wholly the four claims named of the defendant company and also two claims of the neighboring company on the east known as the Afterthought and Afterthought No. 1.

The tow claims last named were located on the 22nd day of January, 1919, and antedated the Freezout and Freezout No. 1 by about three weeks. The principal witness for the plaintiff testified that the Afterthought had not been monumented by the time his locations were made and were therefore abandoned; but there is positive affirmative evidence that they had been monumented to that their boundaries could be readily traced, which is sufficient. The conclusion is that the Afterthoughts were and are valid locations. The Freezout and Freezout No. 1 have ing been located so that their discovery monuments are on the Afterthoughts, they are invalid claims. This holding validates the Pay Day and Pay Day No. 1 claims of the defendant corporation, two narrow fractions lying west of the Afterthoughts, except to whatever extent they are covered by the Freezout No. 2. This claim appears to cover about all the ground of the Pay Rock and Pay Rock No. 1 not in conflict with older claims. As originally located its average length is nearly two thousand feet and at its southern end its width is over 600 feet. It should be confined to the value of its notice, 1200 feet northerly and 300 feet southerly from its original location monument which would take off nearly the northern half of the Pay Rock No. 1.

STUDY OF GREEK GIVEN UP

Fewer Students in American or English Colleges Seem to Care for Ancient Language

Every year the expression, "It is all Greek to me," has a sharper point to it. The reason is that each year fewer boys and girls study Greek, remarks "Glad" in the Philadelphia Press.

I see by the list of students in a typical American college that only one boy in 15 now studies Greek. In the same college 30 years ago over half the students read Greek.

A drop from 50 to less than 7 per cent in a generation is going fast, and shows that Greek will soon be not only a dead but a buried language in the United States.

And from Oxford, in England, comes a wall that the university is fast losing ground.

The year before the war, in 1913, 953 students entered Oxford, but 30 years earlier 784 matriculated. And of those who came in 1913, 180 were Rhodes scholars.

From an Oxford man I learn that Greek is the trouble. Cambridge university abolished Greek, but Oxford did not, although in nearly all the five preparatory schools in England Greek is no longer taught.

So it seems that schools do not prepare boys for Oxford and Oxford stands still.

ALL LIVING THINGS LINKED

Scientists Aver There is Even a Bond of Sympathy Between Humanity and a Stone.

If, as scientists tell us, there is a connecting link between human beings and animals, animals and vegetables, and vegetables and minerals, there is a bond of sympathy between you and a stone. Everything becomes merely a matter of degree, with human beings—in their own estimation—at the top.

A great scientist, Sir Jagadis Chandra Bose, has just given some astonishing facts regarding vegetables, in which he shows that they have many of our characteristics, says London Answers.

The effects of stimulants on vegetables are similar to the effects on animals. Vegetables can also be put under anesthetics, they can be poisoned and they are subject to the death spasm. The latter point has a special interest for vegetarians. Perhaps the most astonishing fact is that vegetable plants possess greater sensibilities than animals, enabling them to record wireless signals.

When does a vegetable end and an animal begin? Near the border line is the common sponge.

SPECULATION GOING WILD IN RUMANIA

(Correspondence Associated Press.)

BUCHAREST, June 9.—Rumania is being swept with a vast wave of speculation, the object of which is to overcome the high cost of living, which harasses the richest and poorest alike. The primary cause of the advanced price of necessities is found in the fact that all manufactured products have to be imported whereas there is sufficient amount of food grown in the country to support the population and this food has not risen in proportion of dress goods.

The cost of living in Rumania has been the occasion of many strikes but as in every other country in Europe, people seem to find unexplained ways of buying necessities and keeping themselves well dressed.

The wealthy women of this country make biannual trips to Paris and return with their trunks filled with shoes and silk stockings and dresses of the latest fashion which they wear until the country people are obliged to wear the same. The wealthy women of this country make biannual trips to Paris and return with their trunks filled with shoes and silk stockings and dresses of the latest fashion which they wear until the country people are obliged to wear the same.

Princess Elizabeth went to Paris last winter and brought back three huge trunks full of new clothes, but arrived home poor broken. While passing through Jasso Slava during the customs examination the trunks were stolen.

The American Red Cross has contributed to the clothing of a good many thousands of people in Rumania. Some of this clothing found its way to the shops. It is not uncommon to find women who have converted American army shirts into skirts, first dyeing them another color. Blankets have also been used for the making of cloaks and overcoats.

The American shoe is practically the only article to be found in the shops. These shoes sell at a price of $4 to $8, cheaper than in the United States. Prices of clothing have been increased about ten fold, as compared before the war. Women's dresses which formerly cost 200 lei or about $25, now cost 2,000 lei.

White Pearls Most Valuable.

Pearls that come from the coast of Australia are of many shapes and colors. Those under ten grains are sold by the ounce; above that by the grain. Color has a deal to do with the value. The white pearls go mostly to Europe and the yellow ones to India. In Australia an ounce of good white pearls will fetch up to $500 but sometimes realize only a fifth of that amount. The yellow pearls may be rated on an average of about half the value of the white ones.
